

This is a short letter that goes below the baseline. Form it without lifting the pencil. Start at the midpoint with a short down line to 8 on the clock, round from 8 to 4 touching the baseline, and continue up to the midpoint. Pull a straight line down the same distance below the baseline, and round from 4 to 8.

This is a short letter. Form the letter without lifting the pencil. Start at the midpoint and make a straight horizontal line in the direction in which we write. Slant a straight line down to the baseline below the starting point of the top line. Make a straight line, touching the baseline, in the direction in which we write.
